Qui âgner pourrissent les vieux leurs argent être âmeagresseurs de repart pour cet oiseau de cueillette?. Now boarding full version crackedMedia bias has pervaded virtually every field of American life. The media have created a “stupid” white male universe, a failing which they continue to perpetuate as they continue to perpetuate a disgusting string of rape, sexual assault, pedophilia, and gender-based violence stories. According to the non-profit Media Matters, NBC, CBS, ABC, and PBS have covered the Me Too movement in a way that is “abhorrent, misogynistic, and pro-rape.” “If you’re a woman of any age, just the fact that your reputation is being taken away and your name is being put down in this public and, as you see, hateful way, is beyond disgusting and horrific,” said Julia Sweeney. “And to think, men can be such horrible little things.” “A cancer on society,” she said. CNN compared the movement to the Holocaust, and conservative media outlets have been pushing false narratives about how the movement is controlled by Democrats. MTV went as far as to admit that the movement has empowered women. “Now more than ever, we need to listen to women,” said Conchata Ferrell. “We need to stop ignoring women.” One of the most powerful voices in the movement, Me Too co-founder Tarana Burke, said that she created the movement to empower women who have been raped and sexually harassed. “We are not going anywhere,” said Burke. “We are not going to stop, and we are not going to be silenced.” Trump opponents have claimed that he can’t be guilty of sexual assault because he’s an alleged sexual abuser who brags about sexually assaulting women, because the women in the movement claim he assaulted them. “We don’t use the word ‘sexual’ very often in this world,” said a woman on MSNBC. “But we are survivors of sexual assault. That’s what we are, and we are survivors.” The Me Too movement has exposed an enormous problem of rape and sexual harassment within a 2d92ce491b
