Add a tiny popup message to your browser with discounts in real-time. Add-on Support: Google Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Opera Maintenance: none Operating System: Windows 7/Vista/XP/2000/98/ME/95 Unite package: 2MB Click the button below to install Checkout Candy add-on. How to install Checkout Candy extension? 1) Search for Checkout Candy in Chrome store. 2) Click Install button. 3) Open Checkout Candy. 4) Click on the Get started button. 5) When the app is ready to use, simply click to open. A good number of partnered shops The add-on has around two dozen partner shops that cover a good part of the market. Clothing shops, hardware stores, pharmacies, body shops, computer and technology solutions all brought together in a tidy list. Also, as mentioned above, the services are mostly US-based, but if a store has world delivery, or you happen to be in a country where a certain business has reached the audience, deals can be found for you as well. How to check for deals? If you've decided to buy something from a supported site, just click its name and you'll be instantly redirected to the home page. When a deal is available, the extension's icon will generate a small blue bubble with a number inside. Click on the bubble to open up a menu that shows you the coupon's value and the products you'll be able to use it on. Of course, discounts aren't going to be available each time you need to buy something, but from time to time, you might score a good deal. In conclusion Checkout Candy is a neat extension that, with a bit of luck can help you save some money while shopping online. Besides, its operation is so simple that it requires only one click on the desired store in order to check for discounts. ### What's New In?

Uncover hidden discounts and deals for over 2,000 products around the US. 100 % Off Code Comings and goings are easier with the extended repertoire of hotel booking apps that are on the internet. However, as in all good things, there are always ways to improve. Check out the list below of the top five hotel booking apps on the market right now. 1. Hotels.com Hotels.com is a one-stop-shop for booking your room in a hotel. You can book your flights, get a car rental, rent a bike and a lot more, all from the same app. You just have to enter the required information like dates, destination, room type and amenities you want. All results are on the front-page of the app. You don't have to pay a dime until you book your room. The company gets its funds from other sources, so there is no need to pay to use the service. After your room is reserved, you can see its details and update the payment. But you are required to make all payments through the app. No extra services or costs Hotels.com doesn't charge for their service. You don't have to pay anything to book your room and you are required to make all payments through the app. Users are also required to update their payment profile, but there are no extra services or costs to do that. 2. Airbnb Airbnb's app is more of a vacation rental app. This app lets you find a place to rent during your vacation. You just have to enter the required information like dates, destination, room type and amenities you want. After that, you get to see all the available options and select the one you want. You can check out reviews and ratings of the homes and rooms, read personal stories and watch some videos. Like Hotels.com, you don't have to pay a dime until you book your place. Though it doesn't offer so many services, it has the room-finding capability and good reviews. 3. Apple Vacations If you are willing to find a vacation home through Airbnb but prefer Apple, then this is the app for you. The company provides many options for different budgets. The app works just like Airbnb, except the prices are in USD and you have to pay to book your room. Apple has its own hotels and resorts, so if you want to book a vacation package with that, this is the app for you. 4. TripAdvisor TripAdvisor is an online community that aggregates reviews
