The new Silk Road is a Bitcoin-powered trade platform for all manner of goods and services. In a climate where Governments around the world are continuing to persecute drug users, the Silk Road becomes a sanctuary for people struggling to cut down on their drug consumption. The Silk Road's chief features are "No ID Check", meaning that no Government is required to show ID if you are buying drugs. "No orders, no taxes, no ledger, no history", meaning that you are not required to give your name, address, phone number, etc. Therefore you can remain anonymous. It is also known that the Silk Road provides a secure trading network enabling the purchase of a wide range of illegal substances, such as marijuana and amphetamines, to illicit substances like heroin and cocaine. Purchasing illegal substances from the Silk Road poses a number of problems for users, both technical and psychological. The technical problem is that, due to Bitcoin's deflationary nature, the price of Bitcoins fluctuates constantly, which makes it difficult to predict how much the Bitcoin price will be in a given moment. Using Bitcoin on the Silk Road has other difficulties, for instance, the average transaction size in Bitcoin is very small. This means that any package of goods, or indeed even single consumer good like an iPad, will cost a lot of Bitcoins; of course, the price of Bitcoins may fluctuate significantly during a single day. The psychological problem is the lack of assurance that the
