Our first camera, we called it the JunkCam was a 100% original. We used to get calls from some of the people saying they would pay to see a camera in their home. Well, that was just how we got started. We now have a number of cameras and cameras linked to a computer so that we can stream your video all over the world. We would be happy to watch your video online as a live web cam. Our address is www.junkjunkia.com and we have a junkblog at www.junkjunkia.blogspot.com. Our cameras can be seen in several places on the web so if you are just interested in seeing them, you will be able to find us. The JunkCam uses RealPlayer or Windows Media Player to play the streamed video. Once your

Junk/scrap/scrapper free lifestyle is set, we can send it to you. Or you can just look through our webcams at our set up. The camera is located in Spain. The JunkCam is one of the first four camera feeds to be on the web. If you have a camera, or know someone that does, check out our JunkCam feed. We make some awesome stuff. We have been featured on the home page of the BBC and many publications. Write to us if you have any questions, comments or are interested in becoming a JunkJunkia. We can do anything and are here to help. Check out our JunkBlog, the most popular of its kind. We are proud to say that our JunkBlog has been viewed by millions of people all over the world. We can also help you. We are junk junkers (or in our spare time).

Goofbay Toolbar

Goofbay is a browser toolbar that will find real bargains on eBay. Here is a list of some key features: ? Private Feedback Checker - Click here to view sellers Private Feedback. ? Shill Bidder Checker - Shows if a user is bidding on their own items. ? View Number of Watchers - See how many watchers an item has. ? Negative Feedback Filter - Shows negative/neutral feedback Note: This toolbar will require JavaScript to be enabled. You can turn it on in your browser. [IMPORTANT] Downloading the toolbar will not ask you to enter email or other private information. Just click the "Install" button on the toolbar to start searching for hidden bargains. NEW to Goofbay! "Minibid" a button that will randomly bid on any item you see with some frequency. Just click it once, and then whenever you see an item that has a "Buy It Now" price that is 3 or 4 times greater than your available cash. Now you will automatically click on the Buy button, and the bid will be checked in the background. Then you simply wait. When the auction is closed, the price will automatically be refunded to you. (We recommend the search feature of the toolbar for random results.) Note: This feature requires JavaScript to be turned on in your browser. Most browsers have this option enabled now. NEW to Goofbay! "MyBot" This is a new feature that will search for an item you specify, and bid for it on a number of websites for you. You can specify a keyword that will be used to begin the search, such as "power plugs", "cell phone chargers", "laptops", etc. We will then check a number of websites for the keyword, and if we see a good deal, bid for it on your behalf. The results of the search will return to Goofbay to be placed on "MyBot" tab, which you can easily access by clicking "My Items". Note: This feature requires JavaScript to be turned on in your browser. Most browsers have this option enabled now. Note: If you really want to start bidding for stuff, "Click!" A new window will open, and you can start bidding in seconds. Note: You don't need to have an eBay login. You can just download the toolbar to start bidding for items without needing to go to eBay.
