Description Rating: 4.0 out of 10 based on 14 ratings. Comments He did a great job by singing it with perfect pitch, so clean and powerful. The only downside to the song is the lack of “feel” for the pitch, but that can easily be fixed by using a pitch correction on the audio to bring it up to pitch. It’s a fun song, but it has a certain charm (also feels like an old-fashioned animal movie, especially during the introduction...) that suggests it’s been done before, which may be an advantage since it’s not stuck in any rut. It also adds to the sense of nostalgia... Funny one. I love your sense of humor and keep laughing every time I watch your videos. Best of all, I just downloaded the MP3 and can listen to the song anytime. I know I will be singing this song for years to come. thanks! This is a

Q: Removing duplicate records from a table. Database design I am working on a task in a project. The project is a an online exam website. They asked me to remove duplicates from the table for multiple choice answer. I have tried all ways I could think of to remove these duplicates, but to no avail. The data are showing up in a table where the answers of a person appear more than once in the table, but their data are different each time. Here is what I am referring to. table test t test_id | student_id | answer1 | answer2 | ----- 3e33713323
