Dissenter Browser Full Version

If you feel that you're getting censored by big tech, you're not alone. From news sites to search engines to social media platforms, the internet isn't as it used to be, and we don't have any control over what we read, what we search for, and what we share online. Brave is here to change all that. Brave is an open-source browser created by an ad-tech company to promote a more private, ad-free internet. It blocks trackers, scripts, and cookies, gives you privacy controls, and more. Dissenter Browser is a faster, user-oriented version of Brave. It offers similar features and is distributed for free. It's a breath of fresh air that can allow you to use the internet in a way that's more private and secure, without any filters or edits. What's new in this version
Fixed:- Refreshed font- Some minor bugs What's new 13 Mar 2019 Version 3.1.9 Added: Skin support for the Dissenter Browser Ratings 2 Downloads 12 Size 3 Quick Favorites Minesweeper Categories Downloads Ease of Use Quick Share 3 comments Navigation Simple vs Complex Navigation A browser is a helpful tool. How we navigate the web depends on the way we use it. While some people prefer to use a website in a specific way, others are more flexible. If you're like me, you're a bit of both. If you're like me, you love to dive into a new topic and spend some time reading about it. But I'm also one of those people who don't know how to begin. I've tried several times, and it's only when I find a website that it clicks with me, and that's where I enjoy diving in. But I never put together a list of websites. What does that mean? That's not to say that I don't read online magazines, or that I never find myself at a cooking blog. But on the other hand, I also enjoy visiting websites and discovering their content. However, when I'm not familiar with a website, I don't always know how I can begin reading, where I can find something interesting, and how
