08548b1e8 Thomas Karrai 12-22-2013, 04:28 PM Hi, I installed the fix for the radio, but I can't make it work. I can see in the 1st screen of the radio menu, with you in the picture in the settings section (not in the main menu of the radio), that a Bus ID is set. It does not recognize my car anymore. The radio is already connected to the computer. I did not find yet how to change the bus id.

Thanks a lot for your help Thebrodyou 12-23-2013, 02:43 PM hi there! Is there any fix from the german forum, or one for the U.S. one? I get "error" on the page when I click "calculator for blaupunkt radio" I can't just not tell people when it is related to fixing the radio, but it seems like this is a main problem here. I can fix it, or not fix it. I just thought I would get more assistance in case I need to fix it. Keep in mind, most of these newer VW's are just recently released, and so, the database is in development at this time. I am guessing that there is a fix on it's way? Thomas Karrai 12-23-2013, 02:44 PM I will see if I can make the calculator work for me. In the meantime, I can provide you with a workaround if you are willing to tell me where you had the first problem. If you can point me to where you set the Bus ID, and if it is set to a number, you might have a fix on the go already. In the meantime, I can provide you with a workaround if you are willing to tell me where you had the first problem. If you can point me to where you set the Bus ID, and if it is set to a number, you might have a fix on the go already. I can do that. I am not sure about the Bus ID though, and I looked everywhere and did not find it. This is the problem I am having. I only have the problem with the radio, because I think it is the problem, not the car. The
