Not all agents are available at this time.Downloading Angular 2 Blueprints This is the second post on the Angular 2 Blueprints blog. Angular 2 is a new framework for web development. It is a client-side framework and is a new direction for the Web. This framework offers a fully-functional abstraction for client-side Web development. It also provides an easy way to plug existing JavaScript libraries into it. Angular 2 is a complete framework for building single page applications. It offers prebuilt controls to manipulate HTML elements such as buttons and text, easily injectable routing, out of the box dependency injection, observables and so on. In this blog post, we are going to download Angular 2 Blueprints and then learn to make a new application. Prerequisites Since this post is about Angular 2, the prerequisite is knowledge of Angular 2. There is also a separate post on how to install Angular 2. Prerequisites are basic knowledge of Angular 2. In order to download the project, we need the Angular 2 CLI installed. Since we are going to download the Angular 2 Blueprints, we need Angular 2 CLI to be on our local machine. We also need an HTTP server to serve the Angular 2 application. In this tutorial, I am using ng serve. If you want to follow along, you can download the Angular 2 Blueprints code from GitHub. Step 1 Open command prompt or terminal, navigate to the location where the Angular 2 CLI is installed and run the following command. ng new angular-2-blueprints This command will open up an Angular application. ng new angular-2-blueprints The above command will open up an Angular 2 Blueprints application with a few initial templates and components. Let's make a few changes to our project. We will also add Angular 2 services, components, and other features. Step 2 Close the command prompt/terminal window by clicking on the X in the corner. Close the command prompt/terminal window by clicking on the X in the corner. Step 3 In the command prompt/terminal window, change the working directory to the Angular 2 Blueprints project directory by running the following command. cd angular-2-blueprints Step 4 Let's go inside the application folder by running the following command. cd 1cdb36666d

This year's event will take place March 4 and 5 at the Hollywood Palladium in Los Angeles.While nominees for the event can be for anything in gaming, particularly as of last year, the nominees for the games award have to fit within the so-called "big four" categories: movies, television, music, and books.The nominees for games include the game of the year for each of the big four categories. The game of the year for the television category is Game of Thrones for season 6, while it is South Park: The Fractured But Whole for television and movies, Unbroken: Path to Redemption for music, and American Sniper for literature. The nominees for games of the year are as follows:For music: Game of Thrones (Bloober Team/Nuon) For television: Game of Thrones (Bloober Team/Nuon) South Park: The Fractured But Whole (Butters, Invincible and the GameTesters) For movies: American Sniper (Spotlight Imaging) Unbroken: Path to Redemption (4th and May) The nominees for games of the year are as follows:For books: American Sniper (Joshua Michael Kinsley)For movies: American Sniper (Joshua Michael Kinsley) Unbroken: Path to Redemption (4th and May) Awards for the video game industry are, perhaps ironically, not as prestigious as they used to be.In 2013, the awards

Markertech: Using the Mymonic GPM10 GPS Alarm Detector.According to sources, Vodafone group is considering to buy the stake of the group. An Indian conglomerate is close to acquiring a Rs 600-crore debt owed by telecom giant Vodafone India, which could lead to a fresh scuffle with the French-owned global mobile group, the sources said. Vodafone India, the country's largest mobile operator, owns a 15 percent stake in Jio. The company is looking to sell a net debt of around Rs 600 crore to gain access to funds, said the sources. The debt has been amassed due to an unpaid dues of Rs 300 crore by Jio to Bharti Airtel, India's No. 2 carrier, said the sources. For the past two years, Vodafone has been pushing to re-enter the Indian market through aggressive rural expansion by selling services beyond fixed and broadband to combine with telecom towers. The Indian telco giant, however, feels the Jio link may not attract the mass numbers it's counting on, the people said. "Marketwise, Jio is working for a niche group. It may not be right for Vodafone," one of the people said, requesting anonymity as he is not authorised to speak to media. A Vodafone India spokesperson declined to comment. "As these are private conversations, we do not comment," said Jio's founder and chief executive, Mukesh Ambani. The group wants to buy back or establish service provider licences, Vodafone said in a filing to Britain's London Stock Exchange in February. "We are in active discussions with potential buyers for the Vodafone India business," the company, which is based in Newbury, northwest England, said in the filing. "Vodafone India expects that there may be no change in the current board of directors of Vodafone India," Vodafone said. Vodafone India is undergoing a massive restructuring programme. The company, which is focused on churning up huge amounts of cash in the short term
