Brisbane is home to the only CBD shop offering designer cannabis from Southern California. This is the first time someone has opened a store with exclusive cannabis products hand-crafted in Los Angeles. A Brisbane couple have made it their mission to bring California cannabis to the city. They've just opened their shop, a single store in the Brisbane CBD selling unique cannabis and premium accessories from California's premier dispensary, Bloom Brothers. Founder Thomas Robson says the store started as an experiment. "We are not in any way a licensed retailer, we are just a dude who has been smoking the best quality weed I can get in California for the past five years," he said. "We have a very passionate community of customers who want access to those same products, which is why we thought it would be cool to open a store. "We just wanted to sell a very fine product at a great value in a place we feel comfortable in." While the couple are registered to sell cannabis, they won't be allowed to sell more than 100kg a year. They say the only way to enjoy the benefits of California-grown cannabis is to buy it at their store. The couple opened the store in December last year and had a soft launch last month. Their shop is Brisbane's only CBD store selling cannabis from California. They've recruited people they know from the medical cannabis community who work behind the scenes in a lab in California. Their 'hand-rolled' cannabis is made
