Yet the film does succeed in immersing the audience, especially with the outstanding performances of the leads. With high-profile stars in the main roles, it does well in capturing the drama, romance, humor, and action that comes with the genre. There's a lot of charm in the film, and while there are plenty of extra characters to keep track of, the 90-minute running time does make that difficult. And this film does succeed in being thrilling as a romantic drama, with strong and engaging performances. Go easy on the popcorn and soda and enjoy the ride. Abraham Lincoln: Vampire Hunter (2013) This time our hero is played by Hollywood's handsome vampire king himself, R.I.P., Nicolas Cage. Not sure whether he's in his first vampire role or not, but this one takes the coveted role of romantic action/adventure/hor
